Capsule Biography:

Andrew Phang received his LLB from the National University of Singapore in 1982, and both his LLM and SJD from Harvard University in 1984 and 1988, respectively. In 1990, he was admitted as an advocate and solicitor in Singapore.

He taught at the National University of Singapore's Law Faculty from 1982 to 2000 and was appointed Professor of Law in 1999. In 2000, he was appointed Professor of Law at the Singapore Management University (SMU). He was made the Chair of the Department of Law at the SMU's Business School the following year. His extensive publications include the local edition of Cheshire, Fifoot and Furmston's Law of Contract. He is also General Editor of, as well as a contributor to, The Law of Contract in Singapore (Academy Publishing, 2012; Second Edition, 2022). In addition to authoring and co-authoring, as well as editing and co-editing, several other books and monographs, he has contributed many chapters as well as forewords to other books. He has published in the leading Commonwealth journals, and has, in fact, published in over forty local as well as international journals (in the UK, the USA, Canada, Australia, Brazil, South Africa, Hong Kong, Malaysia and Singapore).

In addition to almost 300 publications (many of which have been cited in articles and books published both locally as well as overseas), he has also authored close to 400 judgments. His judgments have also been published not only on LawNet and in the official Singapore Law Reports but also in many international law reports (including the All England Reports (Commercial Cases), Lloyd's Law Reports, Law Reports of the Commonwealth, Fleet Street Reports, Construction Law Reports, Building Law Reports, Medical Law Reports and International Trust & Estate Law Reports). Many of his judgments have also been the subject of academic commentary in local and international journals, as well as cited and/or discussed in many books and articles as well as leading textbooks both locally and internationally.

His judgments have also been referred to in both local courts as well as in courts internationally (including the UK Supreme Court, the High Court of Australia, the Federal Court of Malaysia, the Hong Kong Final Court of Appeal, the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council (on appeal from the Supreme Court of Mauritius), as well as the Court of Appeal of England and Wales, the New Zealand Court of Appeal, the New Zealand High Court, the Court of Appeal for British Columbia, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, the Supreme Court of Appeal of South Africa, the Caribbean Court of Justice, the Barbados High Court, the High Court of Fiji, the High Court of England and Wales, the UK Intellectual Property Office, the Federal Court of Australia, the Family Court of Australia, the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, the Supreme Court of New South Wales, the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Victoria, the Supreme Court of Queensland, the Malaysian Court of Appeal, the Malaysian High Court, and the Hong Kong Court of First Instance).

He was appointed Senior Counsel in 2004. He was appointed Judicial Commissioner on 3 January 2005, appointed Judge on 8 December 2005, appointed Judge of Appeal (since re-designated Justice of the Court of Appeal) on 28 February 2006 and the Vice-President of the Court of Appeal on 28 September 2017. He retired on 15 December 2022 and was appointed a Senior Judge with effect from 2 January 2023. In recognition of his contributions to legal scholarship both as a legal academic as well as a judge over a period of four decades, the President of the Republic of Singapore awarded him the Meritorious Service Medal (Pingat Jasa Gemilang) in August 2022.
