Brief Biography

Kenny Chng is an Associate Professor of Law at the Singapore Management University (“SMU”) Yong Pung How School of Law. His primary research interest is in constitutional and administrative law.

Kenny has extensive publications and forthcoming articles in leading international and local academic journals in his areas of interest, including the Law Quarterly Review, Legal Studies, Public Law, the International Journal of Constitutional Law, Judicial Review, the Journal of Private International Law, the Civil Justice Quarterly, the Hong Kong Law Journal, the Asian Journal of Comparative Law, and the Singapore Journal of Legal Studies. His work has been cited with approval by the High Court of England and Wales as well as the Singapore Court of Appeal. In recognition of his excellence in research, he was awarded the SMU Lee Kong Chian Fellowship for four consecutive years from 2020 to 2023. This is the maximum number of times that the Fellowship can be awarded.

Kenny teaches Constitutional & Administrative Law and Legal Theory & Philosophy. He has also taught Contract Law and Business Law. In recognition of his excellence in teaching, Kenny has won university-level and school-level teaching awards at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

Kenny was an undergraduate at the SMU Yong Pung How School of Law, placing on the Dean’s List for all eligible years. In 2012, Kenny graduated from SMU with an LL.B. (summa cum laude). Following several years in the Republic of Singapore Navy in service of a scholarship bond, Kenny joined SMU in July 2016 as a Lecturer and was awarded the MOE-START Overseas Postgraduate Scholarship. Under this scholarship, he pursued his LL.M. studies at Harvard University, graduating in 2018. At Harvard, he received the Dean’s Scholar Prize as the top student for the Public Law Workshop. Kenny is presently pursuing a DPhil in Law on a part-time basis at the University of Oxford, with the support of the Yong Pung How Fellowship. In recognition of exceptional academic performance on the DPhil programme, he was awarded the Senior Hulme Scholarship by Brasenose College, University of Oxford.
