

Professor Graham Virgo QC
Professor of English Law, Senior Pro-Vice Chancellor, Cambridge University Jones Day Professor of Commercial Law, Singapore Management University

Professor Graham Virgo is Senior Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Education, and Professor of English Private Law in the Faculty of Law.

Professor Virgo is a Fellow of Downing College, where he was previously Senior Tutor and Director of Studies in Law. He was previously Deputy Chair of the Faculty of Law.

He is a barrister and Academic Bencher of Lincoln's Inn. His main research interests are in the fields of the Law of Restitution, Equity and Trusts and the substantive Criminal Law.

Arfat Selvam
Managing Director
Duane Morris Selvam

Arfat Selvam is Managing Director of Duane Morris & Selvam LLP and Selvam LLC. Mrs. Selvam practices in the area of corporate law.

Mrs. Selvam has 50 years' experience in corporate finance having been at the forefront of the development of the financial services market in Singapore. Her wide array of experience includes mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructures, takeovers, funds raising in the capital markets, privatisations, financial services, cross border investments, financial services and international joint ventures.

Mrs. Selvam has been closely involved in the legal changes driving the legal financial services sectors in Singapore. She was a member of the Company Law Reform Committee, which made major recommendations affecting the companies and securities laws in Singapore.

Mrs. Selvam was president of The Law Society of Singapore in 2003 and a former Director of the Stock Exchange of Singapore Limited. She was also a member of the Senate of the Academy of Law, the Board of Legal Education, and was formerly on the Board of the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority. She is a director of JurongHealth Fund Limited and Law Society Pro Bono Services. She is also a member of the Board of Trustees of Rahmatan Lil Alamin Foundation Ltd.

She was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 1969.

Celeste Ang
Principal
Baker McKenzie Wong & Leow

Celeste's practice encompasses corporate litigation and arbitration (both domestic and cross-border). Celeste also has significant experience advising clients on compliance and regulatory issues in the context of cross-border investigations, and on a wide range of employment and employment-related issues.

Celeste has represented a broad range of multinational clients across various industries in domestic and international arbitrations administered under major institutional arbitral rules, and in court proceedings. She has also advised clients from various industries such as financial services, energy, oil and gas, and medical devices, on compliance and regulatory issues and cross-border investigations. Additionally, she advises clients on a wide range of employment and employment-related issues, with a focus on contentious or potentially contentious issues including termination of employment, dismissal, retrenchment, breach of fiduciary duties and enforcement of restrictive covenants and confidentiality provisions.

Celeste is ranked by Chambers Asia Pacific 2019 in the areas of litigation and employment and by Chambers Global 2019 in the area of litigation. She is described as "very talented practitioner." by clients. Previously, she was also described as being "very smart, very innovative - a good example of someone who thinks outside the box" and "very technically competent, very thorough and very responsive" by clients who provided feedback into Chambers Asia Pacific 2018.

Associate Professor Maartje de Visser
Associate Dean (PG Curriculum and Teaching)
Singapore Management University

Maartje de Visser is an Associate Professor of Law & Associate Dean (Postgraduate Teaching and Curriculum) at Singapore Management University. Prior to this, she held appointments at Maastricht University and Tilburg Law School in the Netherlands. Maartje obtained law degrees from Maastricht (meester in de rechten, cum laude), Oxford University (MJur with distinction), and obtained her PhD at Tilburg University (cum laude). Her main research interests are in the fields of comparative constitutional law and regional integration. She has published widely in these areas, with her work appearing in international journals as well as edited volumes. Her monograph Constitutional Review in Europe: A Comparative Analysis was published by Hart Publishing in 2014.

---