

SMU SCHOOL OF LAW AUDITING PROGRAMME AY2019-20 TERM 1

MASTER OF LAWS (LL.M.)

The term will commence in the week of 19 August 2019 and classes are expected to be completed by mid-November 2019 (unless otherwise indicated). Please refer to the table below for the class dates.

The course fee is $4,200 per course unless otherwise stated.

For the detailed Course Description, please click on the respective Course Titles.

COURSE CODE	COURSE TITLE	COURSE SCHEDULE	DATES
LAW636	Chinese Contract and Business Law: A Comparative Perspective	Tuesday 1800H – 2115H	20/8, 27/8, 3/9, 10/9, 17/9, 24/9, 15/10, 22/10, 29/10, 5/11
LAW644	Law and Technology	Thursday 1530H – 1845H	22/8, 29/8, 5/9, 12/9, 19/9, 26/9, 17/10, 24/10, 31/10, 7/11
LAW645	Advanced Law of Obligations	Wednesday 1530H – 1845H	21/8, 28/8, 4/9, 11/9, 18/9, 25/9, 16/10, 23/10, 30/10, 6/11

General Notes:

- Applicants should be highly proficient in English.
- Applicants, who are from overseas, are not entitled to apply for Student Visa. They will be required to apply for their own Visa / Pass by referring to the Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) website - <http://www.ica.gov.sg/>.
- A written confirmation will be sent via email to successful applicants approximately 1~2 weeks before the start of the Term.

- Successful auditing participants will attend and observe courses taught by our instructors. Participants are exempted from course requirements (such as project assignments, final exams) and are expected to abide by the guidelines of the respective course instructors on class participation.
- For purposes of the course, successful auditing applicants will be granted physical access to the SMU Libraries to refer to the books within the library and may borrow books from the Course Reserves section for use for 2 hours only within the library. Please note that there is no additional borrowing privileges at the SMU Libraries.
- Successful auditing applicants will have no access to the SMU Libraries' electronic databases (ebooks / ejournals / edatabases) and restricted copyrighted materials.
- There is also no access to SMU's sports facilities.
- SMU School of Law reserves the right of cancellation. Full refund will be given to an applicant if the application is unsuccessful or his or her course is cancelled. We regret that no refund will be given in any other circumstances.
- For further enquiries, please contact SMU Law Academy at email: smulawacademy@smu.edu.sg or tel: 6828 1913.