General Notes:

- LAW courses refer to courses primarily catered to LL.B. and J.D. students of SMU. LGST courses refer to courses primarily catered to non-law students of SMU.
- Applicants should be highly proficient in English.
- Applicants, who are from overseas, are not entitled to apply for Student Visa. They will be required to apply for their own Visa / Pass by referring to the Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) website - <http://www.ica.gov.sg/>.
- A written confirmation will be sent via email to successful applicants approximately 1~2 weeks before the start of the Term.
- For applicants who have received the written confirmation, please mail a crossed cheque, made payable to “Singapore Management University”, to the following address:

SMU Law Academy (Auditing Programme)

55 Armenian Street
Singapore 179943

- Successful auditing applicants will attend and observe courses taught by our instructors and which are conducted together with the LL.B. and J.D. students. Applicants are exempted from course requirements (such as project assignments, final exams) and are expected to abide by the guidelines of the respective course instructors on class participation.
- For purposes of the course, successful auditing applicants will be granted physical access to the SMU Libraries to refer to the books within the library and may borrow books from the Course Reserves section for use for 2 hours only within the library. Please note that there is no additional borrowing privileges at the SMU Libraries.
- Successful auditing applicants will have no access to the SMU Libraries' electronic databases (ebooks / ejournals / edatabases) and restricted copyrighted materials.
- There is also no access to SMU sports facilities.
- SMU School of Law reserves the right of cancellation. Full refund will be given to an applicant if the application is unsuccessful or his or her course is cancelled. We regret that no refund will be given in any other circumstances.
- For further enquiries, please contact SMU Law Academy at email: smulawacademy@smu.edu.sg or tel: 6828 1913.
